

Work & Learning Centre

What can I expect?

We will spend time discussing your situation with you and help you work out what you would like to do and then help you identify the way forward.

We will support you along the way:

Our support might be short term or over many months, and if you need to overcome any difficulties to make progress, we will help you to find the information and services you may need to do this. We can even offer support as you settle into a new job, helping you make the adjustments you need to make it a success.

Cost:

Nothing but your time!
